Mr. Jayantha Wickramaratne
Inspector General of Police
Police Headquarters
Colombo 1.

Dear Sir,

SC FR No. 209/2007

We write as instructed on behalf of our Client, Mr. Vasudeva Nanayakkara, Attorney-at-Law and Advisor to H.E. the President, and who is the Petitioner in the above-mentioned Fundamental Rights Application, in which the Inspector General of Police is the 28th Respondent.

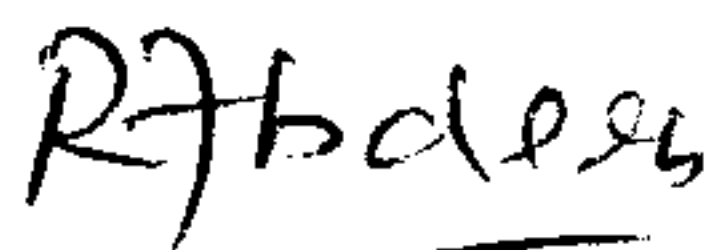

We refer to our Letter dated 14.8.2008 forwarded to you in relation to the Judgment dated 21.7.2008 delivered by the Supreme Court in the above Case. We attach a copy of the said Letter for easy reference.

We having by Motion dated 2.9.2008, inter-alia, brought the aforesaid Letter to the attention of the Supreme Court, the proceedings in relation inter-alia thereto, are borne out by the attached copies of the Supreme Court Minutes of 8.9.2008, 29.9.2008, 8.10.2008 and 15.12.2008, the contents of which are self-explanatory.

Copy of Note dated 29.9.2008 of the 22nd Respondent, Mr. Nihal Sri Ameresekere, referred to in the Supreme Court Minutes of 29.9.2008 furnished as directed by the Supreme Court to the Addl. Solicitor General, to notify you of the contents thereof, is attached to the Supreme Court Minutes of 29.9.2008.

Now it had been a lapse of over one year, since our aforesaid Letter dated 14.8.2008, and we hereby require you to notify the Hon. Attorney General, on the progress made of the investigations you have carried out and/or actions take in that regard, so that the same could be made known by him to the Supreme Court.

Yours faithfully,

Attorneys-at-Law
