Dear Mr. Dissanayake,

Supreme Court Judgment
in scandalous privatization of Lanka Marine Services Ltd.

Further to my E-mails of 16.5.2008 and 29.5.2008, please find attached the Supreme Court Judgment, 'dicta' of which is a damning condemnation of the Chief Accounting of the State – Secretary Ministry of Finance and Secretary to the Treasury.

Your endeavour to promote "Clean Hands" Organisation is indeed courageous and also of paramount importance. However, to be successful, first and foremost there has to be a "Clean Head" ! The 'dicta' of the Judgment reveals that the 'head' has a cancerous brain tumor, which has to be first got rid of before the 'hands can be clean' !!

Prior to holding junior public servants committed to a "Clean Hands" campaign, you would appreciate that in the first instance the "Head" of the public service must be clean !

Your Minister, having submitted the Cabinet Memorandum, 'washed his hands off' and did not endeavour to rectify the wrong !

Yours truly,

Nihal Sri Ameresekere

Mr. D. Dissanayake
Secretary, Ministry of Public Administration
Promoter of "Clean Hands" Organisation
Torrington Square

Dear Mr. Dissanayake,

Supreme Court Case on the scandalous privatisation of Lanka Marine Service Ltd.

I attach a copy of my Written Submissions in Conclusion submitted to the Supreme Court on 9.5.2008.

I am forwarding this to you, as the Secretary of the Public Administration Ministry, who with the best of intentions mooted the "Clean Hands" Organisation, to apprise you and the other Members of the "Clean Hands" Organisation of the deplorable facts disclosed.

I am sure you would agree that the disclosures are 'dirementrically contradictory' to the conduct in the public service, both by those holding 'elected' and 'selected' public office, which such conduct, the "Clean Hands" Organisation was inaugurated to condemn and oppose, in espousing the cause of 'good governance' to restore confidence in the public service.

Yours truly,

Nihal Sri Ameresekere
